The Council of SUNY Community Colleges Chief Student Affairs Officers provides an avenue for senior level Student Affairs administrators and professionals at each of the thirty (30) community colleges within the State University of New York to unite collaboratively and cooperatively for purposes of communication, professional growth and enhancement of practices.

PURPOSE:
- To cultivate strong interrelationships between the member institutions and the SUNY-wide community.
- To promote systems that enhance effective communications between and among member institutions and the SUNY-wide community.
- To serve as a resource to its institutional members in accomplishing their mission through the exchange of information for further enhancement of practices, services and programs which serve to enrich student life.
- To promote and sustain a healthy environment that fosters professional and personal development.
- To empower members to work as an integrated team striving to fulfill our mission and vision.
- To enhance and heighten the awareness, understanding and appreciation of/for community colleges while fostering mutual respect for the individual member institutions.

MEMBERSHIP:
Members of the Council of SUNY Community Colleges Chief Student Affairs Officers will be the senior level Student Affairs administrators and professionals at each of the thirty (30) State University of New York Community Colleges. The officers of the Council (also known as the Executive Committee) will consist of a President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary who will be elected at the close of the June Annual Meeting for a term of two years. Members may serve as representatives of the Council on various committees and task forces affiliated with SUNY.

MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES:
The Council of SUNY Community College Chief Student Affairs Officers will meet to conduct business semiannually (typically in mid June and October) during the three-day Fall and Summer Conference. The Executive Committee is responsible for coordinating the time, location and agenda for the Fall (October) Conference and the Summer (June) Conference. Members representing the Council on various committees and task forces will be expected to report back to the Council at these meetings and conferences.

2008-2010 Executive Committee:
- President: Martha Asselin, Schenectady County Community College
- Vice President: Dr. Ann Topping, Monroe Community College
- Treasurer: Dr. Joseph Watson, Columbia-Greene Community College
- Secretary: Lysa Simmons, Onondaga County Community College
